

TEC recommends to re-float the tender to make once more attempt to get competitive bids or explore the possibilities for undertaking the works on deposit basis through central/state government agencies.