UP54D0017664 dated 03.10.2016 only for exemption of EMD and availing other benefits extended to MSEs under PPP-2012. As per clause 40.3 (ii) of ITB of tender document, this certificate (UAM certificate) was valid upto 30.06.2022 for availing MSE benefits of PPP 2012.

Therefore, UDYAM registration from the bidder was sought in order to extend the benefits under the policy. Bidder submitted UDYAM registration certificate UP540020138 for being Micro -services (trading)-SC dated 02.08.2022, which is after the bid due date 22.07.2022. As the UDYAM registration certificate was after the bid due date, benefits of PPP-2012 to MSEs were not extended to the bidder. On further deliberation, it is observed that the following is also mentioned in the bid document:

Quote

Any information / documents issued post final bid due date shall not be considered for evaluation (refer IMPORTANT NOTES -iii of section II of bid document available.

Unquote

In view of the above, the UDYAM registration certificate so submitted by the bidder cannot be considered for exemption of EMD as this is not the valid document as on bid due date And, therefore bid submitted by M/s Aakash construction is prima-facie rejected for non-submission of EMD amount (one of the benefits extended to MSEs under PPP 2012) as desired in the tender document.
