Respected Sir,

I am writing to express my gratitude and acceptance of the Letter of Acceptance (LOA) recently issued by your good office. Please allow me to take this opportunity to extend my thanks to Authority for considering our proposal and issuing this LOA.

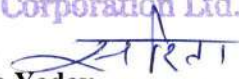

I would also like to inform that we have received the duplicate copy of the LOA and herewith we convey our acceptance for the same. The duplicate copy of LOA duly stamped and signed by the authorised signatory in acknowledgement is enclosed for your reference and record. We assure you that all the necessary documents and the Performance Security, as required by the NHAI, will be submitted to your office within the stipulated time frame.

We would like to reiterate our commitment to fulfilling all the obligations mentioned in the LOA and look forward to working with the NHAI to ensure the timely completion of the project. We believe that this project will be a significant contribution to the infrastructure development of the country and will create a positive impact on the economy.

Thank you once again for your support, and we look forward to a long-term association with NHAI.
