

The screenshot shows the Government eProcurement System (GEP) portal. The top navigation bar includes the system name and user information. The left sidebar contains various management options. The main content area is titled 'BID OPENING' and displays details for a specific tender, including the tender ID, title, and a list of bids with their respective status and dates.