Ref: 1) Request for reconsideration against technical rejection
2) Email Communication by CTC & F&A

The first part bid for the subjected tender was opened on 4th May 2025. The first part evaluation was completed by the user group and subsequently shortfall documents were requested.

✓ M/s Capstone Consultants were technically rejected in bid evaluation process. In the first technical evaluation, bidder was requested to submit the following documents under shortfall documents:

1. Bidder is requested to submit Corporate details, viz Memorandum of Association / Certificate of Incorporation, PAN card, GST registration certificate, ESIC registration and registration of EPF.
2. Bidder is requested to submit Net worth or credit rating or line of credit in required format(Appendix -11) as per clause No.2.3 of PQ criteria. The submitted Bank Solvency value is less than 40% of cost put to NIT. Hence, not considered for evaluation.
3. Bidder has submitted Appendix-9 "Make in India" compliance without the details of location where value addition will be made. Bidder is requested to submit revised Appendix-9 with required details.
4. Bidder is requested to submit undertaking for acceptance of technical specifications in prescribed format of Form-I as per clause No. 4 of technical specifications.

Bidder submitted all documents corresponding to S. No. 1,3 & 4 but did not provide the Net worth certificate in required format of Appendix-11 as clearly requested. Instead, bidder submitted the Net worth details of past 5 years on CA's letterhead with valid UDIN; from the document it can be inferred that the Net worth is on rising trend(as enclosed). Being a financial aspect of evaluation criteria, the rejection was concurred by the representative F&A.

As per email communication by CTC and F&A and on the basis of natural justice and considering that the increasing trend in Net worth (as accepted and communicated by DGM, F&A); It is proposed to provide a second opportunity to the bidder to submit Net worth certificate in the required format of Appendix 11. Upon failure the bidder shall be deemed technically rejected.

Head, CMM-works is kindly requested to postpone the price bid opening till the receipt of the required document or the set deadline of 7 days whichever is earlier.

Submitted for approval of Competent Authority.
