Rakesh Tripathi                                    | Bidder is Disqualified as Bidder is not meeting the PQ criteria of NIT requirement as per clause no. 1.1(c), also not provided the valid EPF & ESIC registration.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 2                  | M/s. Ravinder Kumar Contractor                          | Bidder is Disqualified as not meeting the additional PQ criteria as per clause no. 6.1.Justification for disqualification:1.) The bidder did not possess a valid license as on the bid submission due date i.e. 10/10/2025, hence not the meeting the additional PQ criteria as per clause no. 6.1.2.) Adequate time had already been given to the bidder to submit the license. Clarification was sought from the bidder twice, in the first instance, no reply /clarification was provided by the bidder, and in the second instance, the bidder submitted a license that was not valid as on the bid submission due date.3.) The bidder has informed that an application for renewal of license has been applied, though no supporting documents (i.e. renewal application of license etc.) for the same has been submitted by the bidder for the same.4.) It is also to mentioned that the contractor's license had already remained cancelled for nearly one year earlier i.e. (from 09/10/2020 to 06/09/2021). |
